

LAW DEPARTMENT

SPECIAL INVESTIGATION SUPERVISOR

The City of Baltimore Law Department is seeking a motivated individual to supervise claims investigations in the Central Bureau of Investigation. The successful candidate will direct and coordinate the activities of the general liability claims unit. Work in this class involves supervising subordinate claims investigation personnel.

Qualifications:

A bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university and/or five years of experience investigating workers' compensation, general liability, automobile liability, personal injury and property damage claims (including experience assisting lawyers in researching, negotiating, preparing trial prosecution and settling claims) or an equivalent combination of education and or experience.

Compensation:

Salary Range: $56,000 - $79,400 - Compensate with Experience

To Apply:

Interested candidates may apply for the position on or before May 31, 2010 by sending a resume to:

Justin J. King, Esquire
Chief, Central Bureau of Investigation
Law Department
100 N. Holliday Street,
Suite LL027 – City Hall
Baltimore, MD 21202
Justin.King@Baltimorecity.gov

www.baltimorecity.gov

TTY 396-4930

NON-CLASSIFIED POSITION

City Of Baltimore Is An Equal Opportunity Employer